

Lynn H. Vellinga CPA
Chief Financial Officer
Georgia Department of Human Services

Lynn Vellinga is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) serving as the Chief Financial Officer for the Georgia Department of Human Services. He leads the fiscal operations of the Agency which includes; the Office of Budget Administration, Office of Financial Services, as well as coordinating all fiscal operations with all division in the department. Mr. Vellinga has over 32 years of experience in state government accounting and financial reporting.

Prior to his employment at DHS, Vellinga served as the first State Accounting Officer in Georgia where he helped establish the newly created central accounting office. Vellinga also served as the Deputy Director for the Utah Division of Finance which is the central financial office for the state. During his time in Utah, he was instrumental for the state becoming one of the first to receive the Certificate of Excellence in Financial Reporting. He started his career as an auditor in the Utah State Auditor Office.

Mr. Vellinga is a graduate of Weber State University. He is married to Sandra Paul Vellinga with seven children and eight grandchildren.