The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (US HHS) also prohibits discrimination based on race, color, national origin, sex (including sex stereotyping and gender identity), disability, age, and in some cases, religion by certain health care and human services entities.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact US HHS at (800) 368-1019 or TDD at (800) 537-7697. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination with US HHS, apply online at the OCR Complaint portal at: https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/smartscreen/main.jsf; or write a letter addressed to US HHS and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form on the portal. Submit your completed form or letter to HHS by mail to:
