

Venkat Krishnan
Chief Information Officer
Georgia Department of Human Services

Venkat Krishnan is the Chief Information Officer for the Georgia Department of Human Services (DHS), overseeing all information technology investments and operations for the Department. In his previous role at DHS, he was the project director for the Georgia SHINES Project, implementing a case management system for the State of Georgia child welfare program.

Prior to working with the Department, Mr. Krishnan served as a senior manager for Deloitte Consulting. His primary focus during his tenure at Deloitte was on implementing large scale health and human services applications across the country. Mr. Krishnan helped the governments of Maryland, Massachusetts, Ohio, Oklahoma and the District of Columbia plan and implement their comprehensive SACWIS applications for monitoring child welfare. He has also provided extensive consulting for the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Food Stamp and Medicaid related applications for Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.
